About the Color Me Whispered Collection

Introducing Color Me Whispered—the second collection in Stephanie Organes’ Color Me series, a line of floral-infused blenders designed as a quilter’s paintbox. Following the success of Color Me Pretty, this new collection continues the series’ vision of offering versatile, softly textured fabrics that add depth and beauty to any quilt.

Inspired by the quiet beauty of everyday blooms—wildflowers lining a garden path, petals catching the soft glow of morning light—Color Me Whispered captures the gentle poetry of nature’s colors blending effortlessly. With 28 SKUs in a serene, dusty palette of sage and olive greens, muted periwinkle, warm corals and magentas, delicate buttercream, and faded mochas, this collection transforms the essence of delicate florals into timeless, versatile blenders. Designed to be both subtle and dynamic, these prints work beautifully as supporting fabrics while still holding their own in a quilt. From the lace-like details of Laced Blooms to the graceful petals of Magnolia Veil, Color Me Whispered invites quilters to weave a sense of quiet beauty into their work—one petal, one stitch at a time!
